OptionProfessor Alert:
12/27/22 - Year End Option Professor's 2023 Pain Trades??

In Speculation; Oil's real pain comes from closes ABOVE 94 which gets the triple digits for next spring. Oil drops UNDER 70-65; would cause a lot of PAIN as positioning is very long energy stocks. We spoke of HEDGING at 94 area and so far not a bad idea. GOLD is very much ready to go. Closes ABOVE $1910 would kill the shorts but also the underinvested whilst a close UNDER $1730-$1700 could see the towels

We'll keep an eye on Crypto; but this year the pain was anyone who thought the Wild West was investable.

IN 2022; You have tried Chat Rooms-Lousy Newsletters-Lousy Ideas-Courses & worse.....some say it's insane to keep doing the same things (or listening to same sources) and expecting a different outcome.
