04/02/24 - Great Market Calls From The Option Professor!

OPINIONS & OBSERVATIONS

Not one to boast....but I am proud of our market views lately on everything from the S&P 500, Oil, Gold-Silver-Copper, VIX, and $TNX ect

For those of you who took advantage of my SPECIAL OFFER to receive the LINK to my timing indicators AND a ONLINE meeting with me, or those of you who actually read my updates, I have been explaining that the Energy markets and their stocks turned UP for the last 2 months! This week the Energy stocks (OXY DVN ect) have been ACCELERATING to the upside. Great week for harvest but maybe no for seed planting. Actually, It's a great week to ADJUST positions and employ risk management. Do you know what the heck I'm talking about? If Not, maybe you should get my stuff and talk to me and LEARN. Whether you're just starting out or have traded, this information should be known

I talked about Gold- Silver-Copper and XME (industrial Metals). I said at the start of March that if Gold moved ABOVE $2040-$2060 it would fly and it SPIKED $160 bucks! The pull back held SUPPORT around $2150 and we have gone on the next leg UP to about $2275! I tell people all the time REVERT to the mean are opportunities for entry. Do you know what I mean by that? If not Let's Talk. Silver ABOVE $2250 was a go and now the big Kahuna of resistance at $26 stares us down. I've talked about FCX and XME for months and now harvest time is here.

I told you that EVERYBODY has been talking rate cuts despite the data saying otherwise (ISM says manufacturing has turned up now). I said that IF the 10 yr. ($TNX) got UNDER 4% I'd buy it BUT if OVER 4.35% a risk of filling the GAP at 4.70%-4.80% was on the table (today?)

I told you the VIX LOWS have been meandering higher since DECEMBER so a spike up in March April likely and thus some REVERSION in stocks likely. We have started to see some of that as the LOWS today at S&P 500 5230 area was a target of mine. We got a bounce-break and more lows or correction is over? We'll monitor it. Is CHINA going to get a bounce this year> If So, LVS BIDI KWEB BABA are on my radar-on yours??

I have told you about the Goldman Sachs Commodity Index (who else does that?). It's about half energy and the rest split metals & ags. It REVERTED to the MEAN from the 850 levels in 2022 to MY SUPPORT ZONE 510-520 in Q4 2023. It indicated to me then that Oil Gold ect would RISE this year. The GSCI Index has a GAP to be filled and IF it is filled the prices some of these markets could reach this year is a WOW!
Do you know what I see NOW in that Index? Sure.. you do. Take advantage of the SPECIAL OFFER and let's talk soon.

SPECIAL OFFER- Go to optionprofessor.com or Email Me at optionprofessor@gmail.com and submit your contact info. I'll personally call you. You get the LINK to my Timing Indicators I use for BOTH stocks & options. You get an ONLINE Metting so I can Explain, Review, Share and Teach

WAKE UP! Most of you have OVERPAID for Chat Rooms, Newsletters, Lousy Services and are FED UP! We have NO annual & NO monthly rates! It costs NOTHING to check it out and see how I can help you help yourself. I focus on the TREND and the MOMENTUM to create an opinion.

Not to boast. I have traded thousands of options and millions in stocks PLUS trained at The Options Institute CBOE-Advanced Options Training Do you think I can help you? I believe so.
